

Check for Understanding

Choose the lesson word that completes each sentence. Write the word on the line provided. Some words will be used twice.

attributable	colleague	integrity	promote camouflage	cooperative	perceive	reciprocal
cite	despondent	principal	site

1. You can depend on Joaquin to act with honesty and integrity.
2. One setback or disappointment is not a reason to become despondent.
3. To what is your cheerful mood attributable today?
4. We found her to be very cooperative when we worked together.
5. Tigers' stripes are vivid, but they are effective camouflage in tropical forests.
6. It is easy to perceive when Ted is very angry because he frowns and grows quiet.
7. This field was the site of a terrible battle during the Civil War.
8. For centuries, the two islands have conducted reciprocal trade with each other.
9. Please cite at least one book and one article in your research report.
10. A good colleague does not gossip about his or her coworkers.
11. Brushing and flossing daily are habits that promote good dental health.
12. The principal character in the film appeared in almost every scene.
13. The poor autumn harvest was attributable to the lack of rain all summer.
14. In a/an reciprocal arrangement, Louise cut my hair, and I proofread her short story.

If students answered site for Item 9, they are confusing site and cite. Use Item 9 to model finding the correct choice; for example, "The sentence mentions a research paper and sources. I know that cite is something you do with research sources."