

Practice for Tests

Fill in the bubble next to the answer that best completes the sentence or answers the question.

1. Animals that are able to camouflage themselves seem to:

A blend in
 B feel comfortable
 C stand out
 D be nervous

2. Read this sentence.

If you want to win an argument, cite examples that support your opinion.

Cite means:

A explain
 B mention
 C define
 D research

3. Whether good or bad, a colleague is someone who:

A tries to help you
 B makes life easier
 C works with you
 D asks questions

4. The principal reason for eating breakfast is to:

A obey your parents
 B experience new tastes
 C enjoy the company of others
 D have energy during the day

5. Read this sentence.

Dogs perceive the world differently from the way humans do because dogs have keener senses of smell and hearing.

Perceive means:

A identify
 B ignore
 C interpret
 D experiment

6. A Web page is a kind of site because:

A it is a place where something can be found
 B it contains a large amount of information
 C it is used by people searching for something
 D it exists in a specific physical location

7. Read this sentence.

The McGraws and the Espositos had a reciprocal babysitting agreement.

Reciprocal means:

A convenient
 B shared
 C instant
 D unlimited

8. An example of being cooperative is:

A weeding a community garden
 B tuning up your car
 C visiting a state park
 D answering your phone

9. One way to promote your creative ideas is to:

A write them in your journal
 B put them on a blog
 C work hard at them
 D use logic to support them

10. Integrity is NOT:

A positive
 B trustworthiness
 C dishonesty
 D honesty

If students answer A, B, or D for Item 10, remind them that they need to choose a word that has the opposite meaning of integrity.