

Word Associations

Use what you know about the lesson word in italics to answer each question. Circle the letter next to the phrase that best answers the question. Be prepared to explain your answers.

- Which person has a colleague?
  - a novelist working alone on a book
  - a solo street musician
  - a member of the swim team
- Why would you cite something?
  - to support your views in a speech
  - to reveal deep feelings in a poem
  - to buy a product in an advertisement
- Which is the principal food of infants?
  - apples
  - milk
  - steak
- Which of the following describes a site?
  - Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address
  - the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C.
  - Lincoln's assassination in 1865
- Which of the following persons most likely uses camouflage?
  - a hunter hiding in the woods
  - a singer using a microphone onstage
  - a police officer directing traffic
- Which is an example of a reciprocal relationship between nations?
  - A superpower directs the policies of its ally.
  - A larger nation colonizes a smaller one.
  - Two nations trade with each other.
- Which of the following is an example of a cooperative?
  - farmers jointly purchasing equipment
  - basketball players on the same team
  - supporters of an anti-litter campaign
- Which of the following actions would be associated with a despondent person?
  - laughing merrily at a comedian's jokes
  - hiding in his or her room all day
  - buying a gift for a friend
- To what is the common cold attributable?
  - fever and chills
  - a virus
  - plenty of fluids
- What can dogs perceive better than humans can?
  - words
  - time
  - scents
- Which is a reason to promote a student?
  - The student has passed all the tests.
  - The student does not understand basic concepts.
  - The student has many friends.
- Why is integrity an important trait in friendships?
  - Each person must look out for herself.
  - People need to know on whom they can rely.
  - The most important thing in life is to be happy.