

Check for Understanding

Choose the lesson word that completes each sentence. Write the word on the line provided. Some words will be used twice.

amplitude

fundamentally

radius

velocity

brevity

generate

supreme

virtuoso

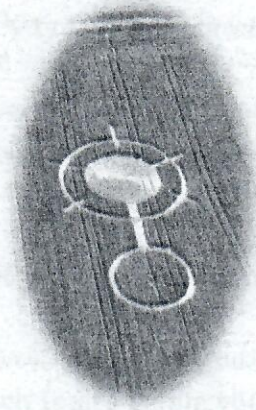

deduction

optimal

technical

volume

1. After reviewing her experimental methods, the scientist made the deduction that her data were flawed.
2. Mysterious circles appeared in the cornfield, each with a/an radius of 600 feet.
3. The clear, breezy day was optimal for kite flying.
4. The brevity of the speech suited the time slot.
5. The new stadium was of such amplitude that binoculars were not only helpful but also necessary.
6. This restaurant's roast chicken is its supreme achievement of hearty cooking.
7. Yee became a/an virtuoso by practicing the violin for four hours every day.
8. A large hot-air balloon can hold a tremendous volume of air.
9. There are many reasons why various social media are spreading everywhere, but fundamentally the reason is that they bring friends together.
10. How did the detective make the deduction that his client was innocent?
11. The amplitude of the feast, with a buffet table filled with food, was stunning.
12. To generate sales, try advertising your product online.
13. Melody rode her bicycle at a/an velocity of fifteen miles per hour.
14. From a/an technical standpoint, that audio system is very advanced.

If students have trouble answering item 6, have them look for a lesson word that is a synonym for best or highest. Allow students to refer to Word Meanings on pages 14–15.